

Foyer

A Centre for Performance. A Space for Community.

Jagriti's vision is to professionalise English Language theatre in India. This space is the realisation of a dream, 30 years in the making. Jagriti supports its performers, has a strong training and education arm, and involves the community in every aspect of its mission.

Jagriti means Awakening in Sanskrit.

Lumbini: World-renowned sculptor and artist Yusuf Arakkal's mural dominates Lumbini, Jagriti's informal, outdoor performance space.

The Fat Chef: This cafe-restaurant reflects all that is Jagriti: fresh, vibrant, and focused on serving you better.

A 200-seat auditorium built around a full-thrust stage.

Stage Plan

Catwalk

Lighting specifications

Type	Power	Numbers
Parcan		18
Fresnel	650	6
Fresnel	1 KV	6
Profile	750 25-50 Zoom	6
Profile	750 15-30 Zoom	6
Strobe		2
Cool light		8
Console	Jester TL Ultra 088
Gobo		24
Gels in various colours
Cyclorama	White

Sound specifications

Equipment	Type	Numbers
Shure Mic	Goose	1
Cordless Mic	SM 58	1
Mic	SM 58	2
Mic	SM 57	2
DBX Crossover		1
Boom Mic Stand	Large	3
	Small	1
24 Channel Mixed	Yamaha MG-24/14 Fx
DAS Avant powered speaker	M 15A	2
	M 18A	2
	M 12A	2

Also available:

Two NEC M260X projectors
2,600 lumens

Two 6' (1830 mm) x 8'
(2440mm) motorised screens - upstage left and upstage right

Jagriti launches its first season. Six high-quality plays by established playwrights and theatre companies from India and abroad, from the classics to the contemporary.

Jagriti is an initiative of The ART Foundation, a registered charitable trust.

Jagriti curates a range of performing arts programmes – across theatre, music, dance, and stand-up comedy. An Aside at Jagriti showcases new writing and crafts theatre workshops for complete community access.

Jagriti Theatre

Ramagondanahalli, Varthur Road
Whitefield, Bangalore 560 066, India.

E: info@jagrititheatre.com

T: +91 80 41248298

Connect:

www.facebook.com/jagriti.theatre

www.twitter.com/JagritiTheatre

www.jagrititheatre.com

Architect: Ravee, Pragrup

Logo: Ray + Keshavan

Mural in Lumbini: Yusuf Arakkal

Photography: Studio Kriti

Design: Studio Sky

